Resolved issues

General

10324071   The Python package urllib3 has been updated to address CVE-2021-33503.

HPC Cache

10449613   Fixed a permission error that could cause a failure when trying to change group ownership to a group that's outside the first 16 groups on the extended group ID list. This problem occurred when the file's mode bits did not include group write access.
